

Duncan L. Niederauer
Chief Executive Officer, NYSE Euronext

Duncan L. Niederauer has been Chief Executive Officer of NYSE Euronext Inc. since November 2007. Mr. Niederauer served as President and co-Chief Operating Officer of NYSE Euronext Inc. since April 9, 2007. He joined NYSE Group following a 22-year career at Goldman Sachs. He served as a Managing Director of Goldman Sachs since 1997 and was responsible for U.S. cash equities operations, including Institutional and Member Firm Client Group sales and client services for ... both the New York Stock Exchange and NYSE Arca. He served as Co-Head of Goldman Sachs' Equities Division execution services franchise since 2005. He joined Goldman Sachs in 1985 and the Equities Division in 1987. In 2000, he relocated to the headquarters of Spear, Leeds & Kellogg. Previously, he ran the Equities E-Commerce effort, served as Global Head of Portfolio Trading, and spent three years in Tokyo in Derivatives and Japanese products. He served as a Partner of Goldman Sachs since 2000. He has been a Director of NYSE Euronext, Inc. since December 12, 2007. He has been a Director of EzeCastle Software since 1981. He served as Director of The Depository Trust & Clearing Corporation until May 2008. He serves as Trustee of Colgate University. Mr. Niederauer holds a BA degree in 1981 from Colgate University and an MBA from Emory University in 1985.