

Daniel H. Stern
Founder, Co-CEO of Reservoir Capital Group

Daniel Stern is Founder and Co-CEO of Reservoir Capital Group, a New York-based investment management firm that specializes in the management of opportunistic funds on behalf of its family office, endowment and pension fund Limited Partners.

He was President of Ziff Brothers Investments, a private investment advisory firm, from 1992-1997. Mr. Stern previously served as Managing Director of William A.M. Burden & Co., a private, family investment firm and an Associate at Bass Brothers Enterprises, a Fort Worth, Texas-based investment management company.

Mr. Stern has participated in the formation and development of numerous investment management entities, including HBK Investments, Och-Ziff Capital Management, Starwood Capital, Ellington Capital Management, SAB Capital, Glenhill Capital, Olympus Capital and Anchorage Capital, among others.

Mr. Stern currently serves on the Asset Managers' Committee of the President's Working Group (PWG) on Financial Markets. Mr. Stern is President of the Film Society of Lincoln Center. He is a trustee of the Mt. Sinai Medical Center, Educational Broadcasting Corporation (PBS Channel 13) and several other non-profit organizations. He is a graduate of Harvard College and Harvard Business School. Mr. Stern and his family reside in New York City.